No.44.-- Thulabhara of Jaggery.

17 Mr. PUTTAKA' .', Nanjangud Taluk.

The present restriction of offering "Thulabhara to the Srikanteswaraswami at Nanjangud in the temple premises and handing over both jaggery and cash to the temple was causing much inconvenience and hardship to the devotees who visit the temple. It was requested that this restriction be removed and due publicity given to the fact of having done so both in and out of the State.

Mr. [illegible] in representing the above observed that the Srikanteswara Swami Temple was known as "Dhakshina Kasi" for a long time, that during the Rathotsavam days not less than Rs.5,000 people gathered and that according to the old method Thulabhara was done outside the temple and the santarpane on the banks of the river or elsewhere according to the pleasure of the devotees. But the latest order was that the jaggery should be given to the temple. Under the normal arrangements the merchants would have made about Rs. ,00, or Rs.6,000 in the sale of jaggery. The temple of course did not get any appreciable income by this arrangement except through kanike. He therefore prayed that the restriction now imposed might xx be removed.

Messrs. [illegible] and [illegible] LIDE [illegible] said that according to the kerike the jaggery was to be distributed to the poor. But now that - jaggery was taken inside the temple and the same jaggery was again used for another devotee. This was certainly wrong and should not be allowed.

Graphically

Mr. [illegible] explained in detail the original practice under which the devotee had to go to any merchant in the ~~xxx~~ town, weigh jaggery corresponding to his own weight, which he would utilise later on in preparing sweets and other things for distribution to the poor at the time of the santarpane. This was a religious custom and there was no reason why it should have been peremptorily changed. He prayed that the - original practice should be enforced.

The Chief said that necessary instructions would be issued not to enforce Thulabharam inside the temple and to insist on jaggery being tendered only to the temple.

At this stage, the House adjourned for lunch to meet again the next day at 10 a.m.

MUZRAI COMMISSIONER'S OPINION.

Upon a representation made by one Mr. S.V.Subbaiah of Nanjangud, the question was examined in all its bearings.

In G.O. No.934-7/Muz.32-20-2 dated 7th September 1920, the levy of fees for Sevarthas in the temples of Sri Srikanteswaraswami at Nanjangud was sanctioned. It appeared from the correspondence that prior to this, the jaggery required for Tulabhara Seva was not, in many cases, brought into the temples, only the price of the jaggery being paid to the temples. There was ample room for leakage in this procedure. Besides, the object of the seva was also frustrated as the weighment and offer of the jaggory &c., were not done in the temple premises in accordance with the intentions of the pilgrims. In view of the loss to the temple the Amildar issued a Circular warning intending pilgrims that weighment outside the temple for Tulabhara defeats the purpose of the seva and that the weighment should be done in the temple where every facility was being given for speedy weighment &c.

I am therefore of opinion that the procedure is in the interests both of the temple and of the Sevarthas, and that no change in the existing state of things is called for.
